As an artist I believe that I bring creativity to any job that I have and I genuinely care for co-workers and students. I am able to recognize my strengths and weakness and I always strive to improve my abilities as a teacher and mentor. Below are some of the comments I received from my CELTA tutors.

Course Report for Cambridge CELTA

Kathryn has made some development in planning and delivering skills and language lessons. She builds rapport well with her students and responds to their needs. She understands the need to start lessons with contextualizing tasks. She has a good pace in class and uses pair work well. She has made progress with analyzing language for teaching purposes and must continue working on this. She could also work on varying her approaches to conveying this in class. She could work on her task setting and instructions in order to afford students the best possible chance to use the language and benefit from tasks. Overall, Kathryn is a gentle and caring teacher.
