

Cover Letter

I'm Ryan, I'm a 25 year old American and I've been living and working abroad since 2012. I've been travelling around Europe either working or as a tourist for 7 years now and I love the opportunity to work in new places and meet new people. I've been to so much of Europe now and I'm always looking for opportunities to see more countries I've yet to visit. My hope is to visit every country in Europe and meet more people, learn more languages and see more cultures. I've worked in Portugal, Poland, Bulgaria and now Russia, though not all as a teacher. It would make me happy and I'd love the opportunity to see a new country for a while. I hope you'll consider me for a job.

Thank you,

Ryan Marshall

Further information:

I'm 25 years old and American with both citizenship and a passport in both the USA and Portugal. I can speak English and Portuguese. English at a native level as it's my natural language. My Portuguese isn't at a native level, but I can easily convey what I intend to say and hold conversation. I am also pre-intermediate in Polish since I was living in Poland. I also have a small understanding of Russian since I live in Russia currently. However, I'm highly motivated to learn as I love learning languages. Due to my Portuguese passport being European Union, a visa is unnecessary in any European Union country. I left the USA in 2012 after high school and never went to college due to the fact that it was much too expensive in the USA, I hope to go to one in Europe someday.
